- Create inclusive environments characterised by mutual benefit for all community members
- Support in student learning activities beyond the classroom
- Participate in and assist with school events as required
- Mentor students and facilitate learning experiences as part of the Advisory programme and Flex

Model and promote the skills and attitudes of an internationally minded person

- Take an active role in pastoral care and behavioural management of students (including assisting in supervising student breaks)
- Provide authentic experiences in which learners might become responsible members of local, national and global communities

Contribute to the curriculum cycle

- Utilise the frameworks of the IBMYP and IBDP
- Embed multiple entry points for a range of learners into all three components of the curriculum (written, assessed, and taught curriculum)
- Use inquiry as a pedagogical framework for teaching and learning

Use assessment and feedback to improve teaching and learning

- Determine the extent to which learning outcomes are on the way to being achieved based on the IBMYP and IBDP frameworks
- Create and implement modifications and accommodations for a diverse range of learners
- Make ongoing adjustments to the design of the learning experiences
- Maintain up-to-date records of assessment, attendance, planning, reports, conferences, and communication with parents
- Create, deliver, and evaluate comprehensive Individualised Learning Plans

Evaluate and apply relevant research based strategies in a diverse and inclusive setting

- Promote innovative and creative approaches to thinking and learning
- Differentiate instruction so as to customise and personalise learning activities to address students' diverse learning strengths and needs
- Collect and use data to draw conclusions to support learning

Create a culture of thinking

- Craft meaningful experiences in which learners can take ownership of their own learning and understanding
- Structure interactions to show respect for one another and value everyone's contributions in the spirit of the ongoing inquiry

Collaborating with all members of the learning community

- Collaborate and communicate with fellow team members in order to have productive dialogue and share in decision making
- Establish partnerships with parents so that they are well informed about student progress and work together to support student growth
